THE MANAGING PARTNER FORUM ANNOUNCES 2013 MPF LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

Conference Scheduled for May 9-10, 2013 in Atlanta

Atlanta - January 8, 2013 - The Managing Partner Forum announces that The 2013 MPF Leadership Conference will be held May 9-10, 2013, at the Capital City Club in Atlanta, Georgia. Registration is now open for leaders of US law firms with ten or more lawyers.

"Since 2001, our mission has been to help law firm leaders be more effective in their challenging, often ill-defined, roles," says John Remsen, Jr., President and CEO. "Participants really enjoy the opportunity to learn with and from other managing partners in a highly interactive format. We're in the process of assembling a great group of faculty for this year's conference, and we'll announce the final agenda within the next few weeks."

MPF programs are developed based on input from past participants and the Forum Advisory Board. The MPF Advisory Board consists of thirty-three (33) managing partners, mostly from mid-size law firms. Topics focus on issues such as firm leadership, strategic planning, compensation systems, growth strategies, and marketing and business development.

Since 2002, The Managing Partner Forum has presented twenty-two (22) law firm leadership conferences in Atlanta, Boston, Chicago, Dallas, Houston, Miami, and St. Louis. More than 775 firm leaders from 650 law firms have participated in previous programs.
