Julio is a professional who has proven ability through hands-on experience and continuing education in executive management, strategic planning, marketing and business development. In 2012 he founded Abacus Worldwide, an international association of law, and accounting firms that is focused on creating programs for growing firms who have a desire to establish international relationships and promote professional development. As a multi-discipline membership association, both law and accounting firms join Abacus in order to support international business referrals, participate in knowledge exchange and gain access to practice management tools all to better serve their growing clients. Abacus members currently span 59 offices in 25 countries.

Julio spent the previous ten years of his professional career developing and leading what is now one of the strongest associations of accounting firms covering 384 member firms in 90 countries around the globe, including 16,300 total staff and a combined fee volume of more than $US 2 Billion. During his tenure with the organization, he led growth and development for the group through ongoing strategic initiatives. In 2011 he led the group through a merger which effectively catapulted the organization into the third largest association of accounting firms worldwide.

Julio lives in Miami, FL, is happily married and loves spending time with his wife, and his two sons. He enjoys music, performing arts and is involved with several ministries at his local church.

Julio earned a BS in Communications from Florida International University.
